A Truly Good Reason For A Massage

I rarely need a reason to book a massage, but in case you do, here's a good one. On Tuesday, September 14th, Massage Envy will be donating $15 from every massage to Susan G. Komen for the Cure. The best part? A 60-minute massage will only set you back $49. (In the oft-overpriced spa world, that's practically free.) Book now, as appointments fill up quickly.
